

Hope Chapel: Conference Venue

Gathering a large group of people together for a conference is a special opportunity to inspire fresh ideas, stimulate discussion and create a sense of excitement. So, it helps if the venue contributes to this by taking people out of their normal working environment. We don't claim that Hope Chapel will offer divine intervention, but people frequently talk about the special ambience and sense of it having been a place of worship and prayer for generations.

The chapel is an ideal space for plenary events and you may even choose to use the pulpit for added effect. Four corners and areas back and front allow gathering spaces for discussion or break-out sessions. Throughout the other rooms and corridors, you will find reminders of the heritage status of Hope Chapel and non-conformism in beautiful Calder Valley.
